In these turbulent times of student demonstrations and LSD, Patsy Smith finds that being BEAR TRACK editor only adds to the turmoil of a teenager's life. The yearbook is finally complete, however, and Patsy, along with Gaye Leslie, assistant editor, prepare to mail in the final copy.

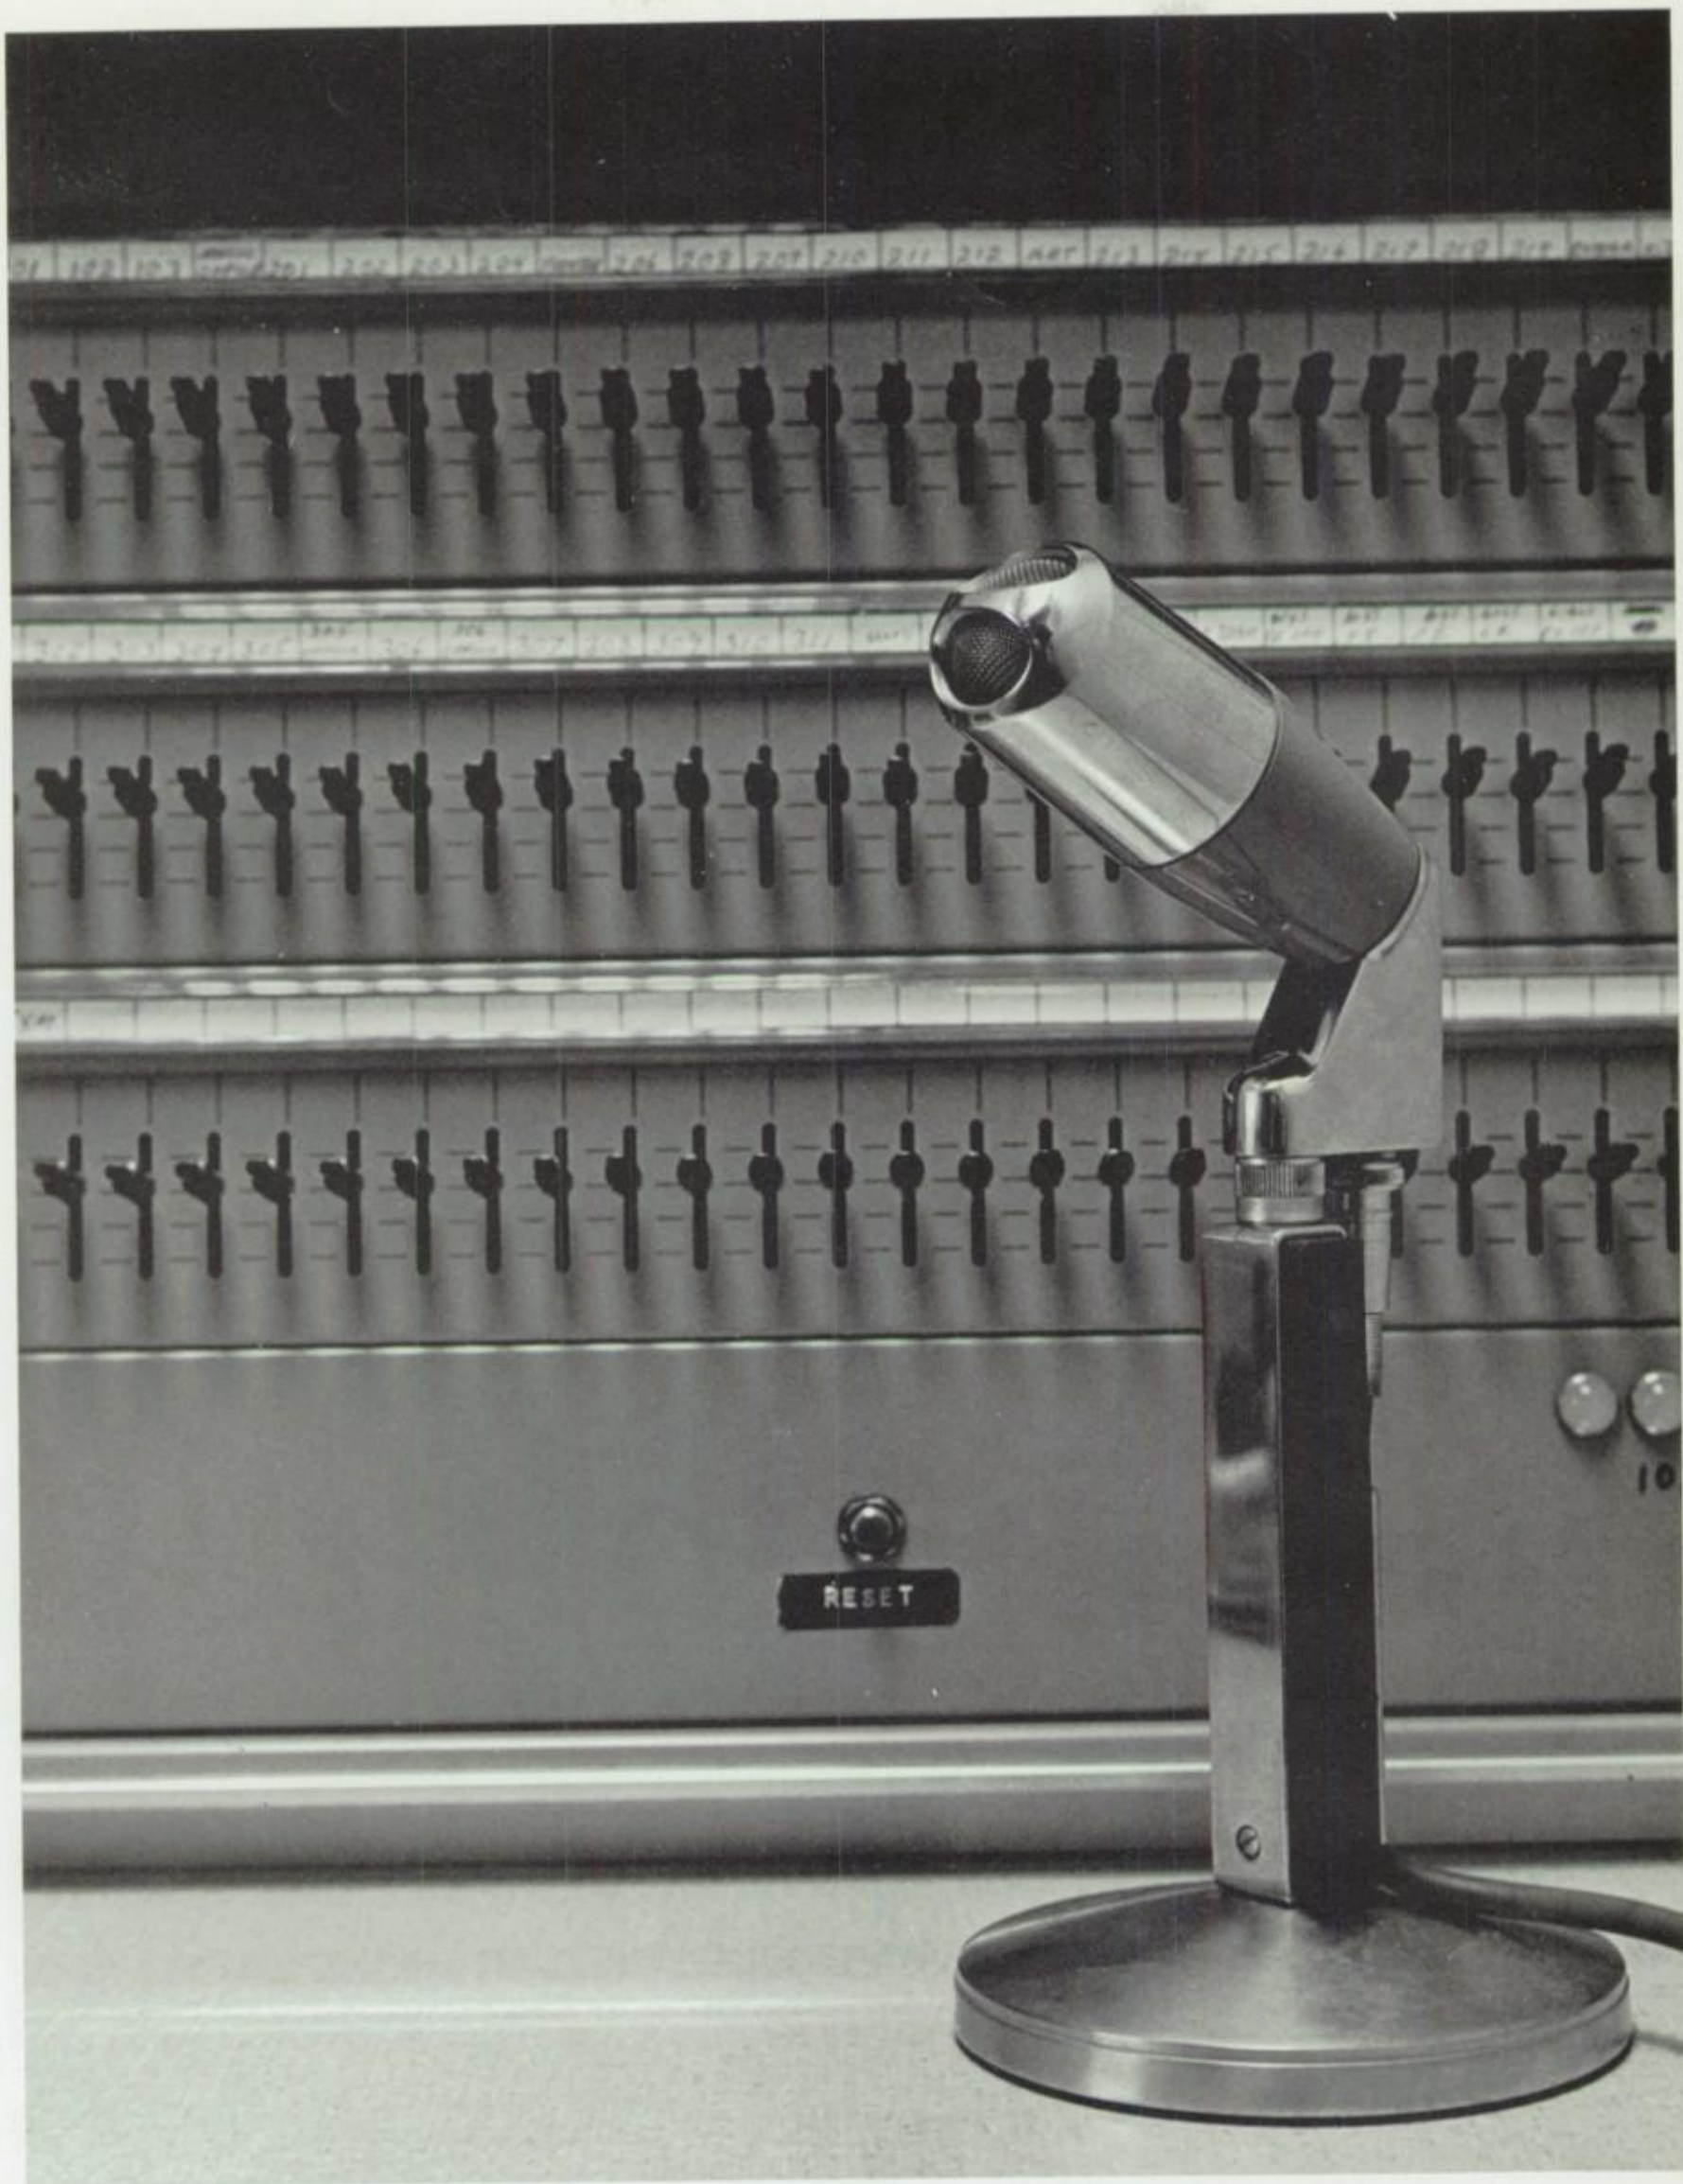

"It was hard work, but we, as well as the rest of the BEAR TRACK staff, agree that we would do it all again.

We would like to offer our special thanks to Mrs. Ruth Ann Butler, our yearbook sponsor. Her hard work and understanding for the past three years have helped to make our task a little easier. We wish her the best of luck as she leaves Noble High this year.

In conclusion, we would like to say that we sincerely hope you enjoy this 1969 edition of the BEAR TRACK as much as we enjoyed doing it for you."

Keith Rousey certainly seems to be enjoying his task of crowning Selma Kovelda as the 1969 wrestling queen. We suspect he's had some previous experience.

Peachy Laird, 1969 basketball queen, gets that special coronation kiss from Dennis Tolson.

Coronation Candid

Carnival queen Carolyn Brockhaus seems to be losing something. Jim Gordon is her escort.

Who says the escorts don't primp as much as the queens?

See why the Sophomores are noted for their laziness?

Bingo helped the seniors win at the Carnival.

A little hard work never hurt anyone!

Can this be ... Beauty and the beasts.

Pied Pipers!

I didn't mean to do it, Mr. Fuson!

The Science Club sold cokes at noon.

Who says the halls are crowded!

Noble's own carbon-monoxide commandos.

My girdle is killing me!

Morgan, Coach Griffin.

Junior High cheerleaders show their excitement at a football game.

Practice makes perfect!

THOSE LETTER JACKETS FINALLY ARRIVED! Presiding over the distribution are Mr. Fuson and Mr. Farris. Receiving jackets are Jim Gordon, Jim Smith, Mike Scott, Joe Wilkerson, and Patty Smith.

The weather may be warm, but it's never too warm for a new letter jacket!

Homer Wilson doesn't seem to be the least reluctant to accept his new jacket.

Sports

Mr. Hayes, Mr. Farris, and Mr. Brown handle press box duties at the football games.

Patsy Span seems determined to get that rebound.

A lot of skill? was shown at the Harlem Wizard game.

Mr. Moreu keeps a close watch over the practice sessions.

Shots

Larry Jordan and Jim Mays clown it up at one of the pep assemblies.

Coach Snider sometimes gets in on some unpleasant duty.

Mrs. Miller, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Bell, and Mrs. Moser must select the class with the most school spirit at the pep assembly.

Mrs. Gardner, first grade teacher, greets parents at Open House.

Colorful bulletin boards on many interesting subjects greet elementary students as they enter the classroom.

Open House provides an excellent opportunity for parents to examine their children's work.
